FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pharos Offshore Group Welcomes Greg Liggins as New Finance Director

Bringing over a decade of cross-sector financial expertise, Greg Liggins is set to drive financial strategy and growth at Pharos Offshore Group as Finance Director.

Port of Blyth, Northumberland UK (Feb. 27, 2024) -- Pharos Offshore Group, a leading provider of seabed intervention services and solutions, is pleased to announce the appointment of Greg Liggins as its new Finance Director, effective immediately. Greg brings to the role a wealth of experience and a proven track record of financial leadership across several key industries.

Greg is a Chartered Accountant and boasts an impressive academic background with a First-Class Honours Degree in Mathematics and Statistics, with integrated Masters. Over the past 15 years, he has garnered extensive experience in a range of sectors, including oil and gas, marine decommissioning, and construction, demonstrating his versatility and ability to drive financial success in diverse business environments.

Throughout his career, Greg has shown a remarkable capacity for strategic financial planning and management, working with businesses ranging from small enterprises to PLCs and large corporate organisations. His expertise in financial stewardship, coupled with a deep understanding of the operational complexities within the sectors Pharos Offshore operates, positions him ideally to support the company's growth ambitions and enhance its financial performance.

Speaking on the appointment, Russell Edmondson MD of Pharos Offshore Group, said, "We are thrilled to welcome Greg to our executive team. His extensive experience and strategic financial insight will be invaluable as we continue to navigate the evolving demands of the offshore industry and seek new opportunities for growth. Greg's proven track record of delivering financial excellence aligns perfectly with our mission to provide innovative and sustainable subsea engineering solutions to our clients worldwide."

Greg commented on his new role, stating, "I am excited to join the Pharos Offshore Group as the company grows, continuing its support for the offshore energy sectors. I look forward to contributing to the team's efforts, building on the company's strong foundation and driving further financial and operational success in the years to come."

The entire Pharos Offshore team extends a warm welcome to Greg and look forward to a prosperous future with his leadership and expertise guiding the company's financial strategies.
